

Angela "Angie" Joanna Victory

September 23, 1922 - September 2, 2015

Angela J. Victory "Angie", 92 of Fort Collins, CO, died September 2, 2015 at her daughter's home in Fort Collins. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 AM Saturday, September 12, 2015 at St. Joseph Catholic Church. A Reception will follow the Mass at the church. Interment will be held privately at Fort Logan National Cemetery.

Angie spent her last days expressing her gratitude for the abundant blessings she received, praised the greatness of God, and expressed avid curiosity about the adventure awaiting her in the after-life. All of her children and most of her grandchildren were able to be with her in her final days, and she very joyfully chatted with each one. She was able to experience her family at their very best as they very lovingly and with great devotion cared for her, and provided comfort and support to each other. She sweetly and graciously passed nestled in the bosom of her family.

Angela Mocellin was born September 23, 1922, in Ogden, Utah, to Francis and Mary Mocellin. She grew up in the small coal mining town of Superior, Wyoming. She obtained her undergraduate degree from Colorado Women's College and completed graduate studies in social work at Catholic University in Washington D.C. and worked for many years as a social worker for Catholic Charities in Tucson, AZ. After moving to Fort Collins in 1974, she performed office management for the family business, Mountain Medical Solutions, Inc., and helped care for two of her grandchildren, Crista and Michael Reid. She continued to contribute to the business until she retired at age 85.

Angie married John Victory on June 10, 1947. They lived in Washington D.C until John was transferred to Colorado Springs, in 1950. In 1966, they moved to Tucson, AZ, and then back to Ft. Collins in 1974. John retired in 1986 and they spent many years enjoying retirement, traveling, volunteering and keeping company with their many great friends. John passed away February 19, 2006. Angie continued to live well and independently until the last few days.

Angie devoutly practiced her Catholic Faith. She was a charter member of Centering

Prayer, and active on the Prayer Networks for both St Joseph and St Elizabeth Ann Seton Parishes. She was the founding member of Women's Investment Network, active in two bridge clubs, and kept in touch with many friends from NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness).

Survivors include her five children, Tom (and Joanne) Victory, Daniel (and Patricia) Victory, Michelle (and Gilbert) Quintanilla, Mark Victory and Theresa (and John) Reid; ten grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren.

“ Most of the time I just popped in on Angie for a quick hug and a chat. She used to call me at work and say, "I've got left overs and I need someone to help me eat them. Wanna stop by on your way home?" She was my other mother. I saw her just after she came home from receiving her diagnosis. She said that she was going to bridge and saying that she had cancer and she didn't want to talk about it. I told her I would listen when she was ready to talk about it. She talked for an hour about how it felt, what she was curious about and how she was going to get business in order and walk through that doorway with no fear. Sounds like that is exactly what she did. She showed me a lot about life between the age of 75 and 92. I loved her vitality, her eagerness to learn, her desire to open her mind, meditate on the Divine and be of service. I am grateful for all the time we shared together. She loved her family with all her heart. Blessings to all of you. I imagined her saying, "Ya know Suzanne, this is really kinda fun." Her voice rings true in my heart always. Love~Suzanne (Ms. R)

“ I just learned about Angie's passing today (9/15/15). I enjoyed getting to know Angie through the local chapter of NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness, Larimer County) over the past 14 years. Her ready smile and positive attitude were contagious, even in the midst of the inevitable struggles of life. Her ability to encourage others was amazing, and so appreciated by so many over the years. Her faith was integral to who she was, and even in her absence, the way she approached 'the next great adventure' continues to encourage and inspire those of us who are still in this current adventure. Condolences, hugs, and blessings to her family.

“ I remember John and Angie who came and went when I was office manager at PLT after retiring from CSU. A few years ago hen my friend Bambi moved into PLT, there was Angie living next door. (John had passed away some years before.) Always smiling, she brightened the day wherever she went.

Park Lane Towers friends will miss Angie's happy disposition, as surely will her family. Know that Angie's spirit will always be with you in your thoughts.

“ Angela and John were the long lost members of our family tree, a journey that started with my dad's cousin Francesco when he walked from the village of Stoccareddo to Venice docks (more than 100 km) and caught a ship to the States. He made a life for himself in the town of Superior in Wyoming and my dad probably thought he'd never hear from him ever again. It wasn't until Angie's oldest son Dan arrived somehow at Danilo's front door in Bassano del Grappa a few generations later, that the family was reunited. Luckily Danilo's oldest daughter Luana could speak English and that's how it all restarted. Danilo, his wife Luciana and Luana and her son Matteo flew to America and had a wonderful time meeting the extended family and visiting Yellowstone Park with Tom as their chaperone. Angie visited Italy with John and Tom and met all the Italian side of the family Mocellin and came again with her friends to Rome where she spent a few days with Danilo and Luciana, this was the last time that they were together. We are all deeply saddened by the news of her death and she will always be in our hearts and minds. We extend our deepest condolences to all our American "cousins" and hope to see them again. Love Danilo, Luciana, Luana, Manola and Morena.

“ We were shocked and saddened to learn of Angie's passing. Angie will be greatly missed our deepest condolences to all of her family and freinds. Over the many years we knew Angie and John, few things gave more pleasure than helping Angie research her many new growth ideas. She always kept us on our toes.

“ Angela was a very special neighbor and friend for the 3 years when I lived in the Towers, from 2000 to 2003. We exercised together and also enjoyed many luncheons and "outings" with other residents of the Towers.

Very often, Angie was the one who got our group excited about some adventure. She also shared with us her joy of living and her love of her family.

When I was getting ready to move to a senior residence and needed to dispose of some belongings, Angie brought over her college-bound grandson who relieved me of a few household items which he could use for his college "digs".

In 1953-1955 I had taught elementary school in Superior, Wyoming--long after Angie had moved on to higher goals, but I felt that the people I met in Superior WY were extremely friendly--meeting Angie over 50 years later confirmed my feeling about Superior natives.

She certainly brightened my life.
