

Ben McDonald Howarth

August 20, 2019

Bernard (Ben) McDonald Howarth, age 59 passed away unexpectedly in his sleep on Tuesday, August 20th, 2019 in his Fort Collins residence. Ben was born January 4, 1960 in Subic Bay U.S. Naval Base, Philippines to Elizabeth and Darrell Howarth. He was a 1977 graduate of Pomona High School Arvada, CO, earned a bachelor's degree in History from the University of Colorado in 1982 as well as a J.D. from Creighton University. He leaves behind three sons he loved dearly and was so proud of: Taylor, Max and Jack Howarth. He is also survived by his siblings Tom Howarth of Albuquerque, NM, Dan Howarth of Baltimore, MD, Susan Kelly of Albuquerque, NM and his 7 nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Howarth of Fort Collins, and his father, Darrell Howarth of Lander, WY. Ben had a successful career as a pharmaceutical representative and attorney. He was an excellent skier and enjoyed hiking and golf. He loved camping with his children on the Colorado National Monument and Colorado Grand Mesa. He took excellent care of his mother in the final years of her life. His family and friends will miss his wonderful sense of humor and kind, generous spirit, but most of all, his hugs and love. Rest In Peace, Ben. A celebration of Ben's life will be scheduled in December 2019 in Denver, CO (Goesfuneralcare.com).

Comments

“ Words can't express how sad I am that you are not with us!!!! I will miss you deeply! You were one of a kind and I was fortunate and grateful to know you - your unique personality and sense of humor!!! You touched our lives in a profound way! You were the best, kindest, most loving, devoted father to your sons and a most loving, doting and dedicated son to your mother!!! There is a hole in our lives without you, but you will live on in our warmest, most loving and heartfelt memories!!! God be with you!!! My deepest condolences.
sharon pace

Sharon pace - September 14 at 07:23 PM

“ "Fare you well, fare you well, I love you more than words can tell."
Rest my friend, rest now.

John Brugger - August 27 at 08:14 AM

“ I'll miss you, buddy

Mike Ryan - August 23 at 06:50 PM