"Welcome Home my child, my daughter, your work on earth has been well done, You have been the witness to many while on earth and you've shared the store about birth. You never hid the fact that you loved me. You shared the Word no matter what the need be, and you showed how faith can strengthen and often mends. You did your best to always give glory to me, and for this, you will live eternally. And now the time has come for you to rest. I'm taking you Home as my special guest. Welcome home my daughter, my child; your work on earth has been well done.:

“ I have soo many memories. Going back to Missouri with her. Riding on the back of the tailgate flying down dirt roads n beleive me she never knew what a speed limit sign meant. She showed me farming. I will always remember Henry the chicken. If anyone really knew her after cleaning up from dinner she would have a beer and her big Brown king soopers bag full of popcorn. N always the big wooden spoon
