“ I've said it before - Bill was a kind soul, with a quite demeanor and a gentle giant who is deeply missed by his friends and family. My prayers go out to his wife and children. I pray that you find solace that Bill is in Heaven waiting for each of us to join him when our Lord calls us home.

“ My Dad was married to Uncle Bill's sister Sharon for a number of years. I'm so glad I was able to share, with him when I saw him for the last time a couple of months ago, one of my fondest memories of him .

The very first time we met Uncle Bill was around Christmas time, probably 1985 or 1986. My brother and I were nervous to meet this new uncle of ours but Uncle Bill made us feel right at home and was very kind to us. What made a huge impression is that not only was he kind, but he thought enough to give both my brother and I a card with $10 inside for each of us. Even as a 9 or 10 year old kid, I knew that was unusual...for a stranger to be so thoughtful of the new niece and nephew he'd not yet met.

You were a kind and generous man and I'm sad that you're gone. I wish I could have known you more as an adult. You'll always be remembered.

“ I met 'Billy' when he was @ 11yrs old. He and his big brother, John, had moved in across the street. After many years John and I had gotten together in a loving friendship I thought would be there forever. I was able to be re-introduced to Bill and knew he lived in my part of Colorado while John was in Colorado Springs. John passed two months ago and my heart is still aching. To learn that Bill, the baby of the Vest clan, passed was a shock! To Kathy and the girls, I'm so very sorry for your loss. It's too much in such a short period of time. May God bless and keep you close.

“ It is hard to believe you are gone my dear friend. I find comfort that you now are reunited with Billy. We all went through some good times and bad that group of us that were hired 78-79. I still have the piece of tape you sent to me on a chip carrier box wishing me a happy 21st Birthday because we had to work that night. I will miss you but never forget you. You helped me become the person I am today. Cathy
