“ Carole and I met in 1994. We shared some wonderful times together throughout the years in book club, in Arizona and with gatherings of mutual friends. She was a generous, kind, and loving person who will be greatly missed. May she rest in peace.

With deepest sympathy,

“ We only met Carole one time, as new neighbors, right before her death. She was frail but gracious, and loved talking about her wild horse herd in Wyoming. My wife and I remarked at the time that we admired her dedication to animals. Our condolences to friends and family. We wish we could have gotten to know her better.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Wilmarth. I hope you will find comfort, as I have, in these wonderful promises from our Heavenly Father, the God of all comfort--Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29.
