“ Carol -- Our hearts are heavy with your passing. You were such an amazing mom, caring sister and friend. Such compassion for both man and animals. The world is a better place because you walked amongst us. You will be dearly missed.
Love you, Terry

“ To my sister, Carol. When my son, Michael, gave me the news of your passing I was numbed. My feelings can be summed up in the words of James Taylor, "I've been walking my mind through uneasy times. My back turned toward the sun. Lord knows when the cold wind blows it will turn your head around." The world seems colder and less forgiving without you.

If I could see you one more time again I would thank you for your thoughtfulness and invitation to dinner in November 1973. You introduced me to Terry. I am forever grateful.

All my love,
Your brother Steve

“ From Tina: To my best buddy. We had such a great time. In high school and after. We had each other's back. I will never forget all the memories of hanging out, living together and when our kids were small. Our trip to Colorado and Camping. I could go on and on. I cannot believe I won't be able to call and talk. I will keep talking to you in heaven and I will never forget you. You are my Friend Forever. I love you Carol.

“ Love you, mom. Truly loved having you living so close to us these last 6 months and am so saddened that your time was cut short. Still can't believe you're gone. I miss you so much.

“ Carol and I volunteered with Rocky Mountain Cocker Rescue together for many years, and she adopted many of her canine companions from them. We lived fairly near one another and usually helped out at the same events. We became friends, and when I moved out of state she bought me a beautiful gift. Carol, you were a lovely person. I hope to see you again some time in the future.

“ My deepest condolences go out to all of Carol's family during this most difficult time. Carol was a very dedicated volunteer with Rocky Mountain Cocker Rescue. I never had a chance to meet her personally, but had asked her to do some home visits for me, and she was always enthusiastic to help out. She will be very much missed by all.

“ I will always remember Carol's dedication to Cocker Spaniel Rescue. She would come to rescue events with them and she always had them looking so cute and happy you know they were well loved. Carol was a good friend and I will miss her.
