“ Cheryl was not only my sister but my best friend. She was funny and witty, I loved hearing her sing with Deb and Mom. She was a very special person, her faith and knowledge was unquestionable. The last two and half years of illness did not diminish her humor, faith, or love for her God, Dan her husband of 39 years or all of her family. I wait for the time we will be together again in Jehovah's earthly paradise.

“ We didn't know Cheryl very long, nor very well, but we did enjoy the time we spent with her. She had a wonderful sense of humor and she had a loving heart. She will be missed. Our condolences to Dan, Vic, Mary and the rest of the family.

“ Victoria, You are a wonderful example of an integrity-keeper, not only to your sister but also to Jehovah. We are so sorry about Cheryl's death and the pain you and your family are enduring now. The convention theme is so encouraging even for those asleep in death,"Let your kindgom come!"

“ I loved Cheryl very much and still do. She was a good sister and friend, loving and kind, but she could also straighten you out in good order as only a sister could. I look forward to seeing her again in the Paradise right here on the earth. A beautiful promise from the Bible that she believed strongly in. Living without sickness or pain or death. Cheryl struggled hard to keep living, but now is resting in God's memory. Thank you too, Dan and mom and Vic for taking such good 24-7 care of our loved one. Debbie

“ Cheryl was the best aunt, friend and person that I could ever hope to know! I will never forget the good times we had together, from frog hunting around Fort Collins, making us super hero costumes to wear and play in, going with me on my first plane trip to Louisiana, to all of the advice she gave me over the years and support she always showed me. I loved her immensely and loved everything that she ever did for me! If I could relive my happiest moments in life, the majority would require her presence!

I love you Aunt Cheryl, and Thank You for everything, you made an impact on my life like no one ever has!

“ Dear Mary, Victoria and Dan,
Our deepest sympathies on the loss of your Cheryl.
We know the heartache death causes.
Remember Jehovah's promises and the hope of the resurrection.
Our prayers are with you all.

“ What can I say about my sister Cheryl except that she truly lived up to her middle name. She brought joy to so many for so long. She displayed the fruits of Gods spirit, love, joy, peace, long suffering, kindness, goodness, faith, mildness, and self control, in imitation of her God and his Son. If you knew Cheryl for a long time or short you knew of her love and compassion. What stands out to me, is that not only did Cheryl display these qualities, she inspired them in others. How else could you explain the last two and a half years of her life. where pimilarly 3 others showered Cheryl with love, compassion, and kindness. Her husband her mother and especially her little sister. With around the clock care, comfort, and protection. With the aid of nieces, sisters, sister in laws and many others to many to mention from near and far. From chomping ice for her to cool her throat to not getting upset when she teasingly wouldn't let her husband share her food, or eating all of her sisters Cheetos and laughing out loud about it. Also a mother caressing her cheek and stroking her hair. To being there to the very end singing kingdom songs and praying with her. I would say that such outpouring of love, compassion and kindness by so many is a tribute to Cheryl and her God Jehovah and His Son Jesus Christ. I hope I can be there in the New World to see Cheryl playing with her pet tiger and again sharing good times with family friends and loved ones. I love my sister, says Little Ronnie Dove.

“ For all of you who have lost a sister or Mary a daughter, or Dan a wife or an aunt, my heart and prayers go out to you. We have such a beautiful promise from our Creator, Jehovah, to sustain us through times like this. His promise is that we will see Cheryl again when her body is well again and there is no more death, pain or sorrow. We all long for that time because we have all lost ones in death that we love so much. Keep that promise strongly fixed in your minds and hearts, and know that she is in Jehovah's memory, the safest place of all to be. With Love, Linda Grenz

“ Dearest Dove and Cheryl's family member's,
We wanted to let you all know that you are certainly in our prayer's and thoughts during these most difficult times dealing with the loss of someone so close to you all. May Jehovah take care of you and be with you, until all of us can welcome these ones back into our lives in the coming paradise.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Cheryl's family. I knew Cheryl from Kindergarten to High School and beyond. What i loved most about her was her great sense of humor, we laughed a lot whenever we met up somewhere in town. She was a special person i will miss her, but i will see her again in Jehovah's new order. May you all take comfort in Jehovah's love. All my love to the Dove Family.

“ Rosanna by Toto, MTV, make-up, cousins, the pool, the blue dodge dart, Dr Scholls original sandals, perfect calligraphy - things that make me smile when I think of them, things that remind me of my Aunt...Cheryl was there when others weren't or couldn't be. Her love was always unconditional. Her smile sincere. And she could articulate perfectly when nothing else made sense in my world. My childhood memories wouldn't be the same without her there, and nothing really can fill the void in my heart that holds a place for her, and her only. I will miss you, I will remember you, and I will always love you.

“ I can't say I knew Cheryl well, we have lived in different states for much my time as a member of the Dove family. I remember the fine comments she made at meetings while she and Dan were in the Spring Creek congregation back in the late 80's, and that she was a pioneer. I know that she was a favorite sister, and a favorite aunt. Maybe we shouldn't have favorites, but some people are special. And the fact that Cheryl was special is evident in the love, care and companionship she was given by her family during her illness, especially by her husband Dan, sister Victoria, and her Mom, Mary. She will be missed, but I look forward to the time when she will be healthy and happy in the new world where there are no tears, death, sorrow or pain.

“ In loving memory of my dear sweet sister, Cheryl Joy who was so encouraging and loving to me when my dear husband passed away, in part, she reminded me that our dear loved ones will be missed a lot by those of us left living, but they are done with struggles, pain, everyday strife of this old system. The joyous new world the happiness we will share with them when they wake up will be their next conscious thoughts. The challenge is for the rest of us to remain faithful now, like our dear Uncle Warren expressed before he died "stand firm!" for Jehovah in these last days. We have the gift and the comfort of knowing that the Kingdom we pray for will be here soon. Thank You my dear Mother, sister, Vic and Dan for your loyal Love and for taking such good care of my dear sister x's two Cheryl Joy Dove Huntwork. I am sending my heartfelt Love and sympathy to all "Ya'll" My dear Mother, sisters and brothers both in my Family and in the Truth I join you in missing and grieving for "sweetpea" Cheryl Joy. .

“ Victoria, My heart sunk when I read your e-mail but I also thought about Cheryl being out of the misery that she has been in for so long. I can't imagine the frustration she must have felt for all those months that turned into years. I thought of you and all the time you spent with her so she had the best care possible and I'm sure you were a life saver to her because you were able to communicate with her better than anyone else. If I needed a spokesperson for me, I would want you. I have thought of Dan and what he has gone through. I know they were a close couple for a lot of years. I've been thinking of your mother because parents don't expect their children to die before they do. You have been in my thoughts a lot. I miss you and think of you, Cheryl, Dan and your mother so often. I pray that your Cheryl and our Kevin are feeling peace and joy that they have been without for a long time. Love you. Flossie

“ All our hearts are saddened by this news of the loss of Cheryl. May Jehovah the God of tender mercy and comfort be with you and all your family during this time of grief. We will look forward to seeing her along with many others of our loved ones during the resurrection which just can't be that far away. You all have been in our prayers and will continue to be.

“ Dear Friends,

I am joining my voice and prayers to the Huntwork and Dove family as you are surely missing Cheryl at this time. As I remember Cheryl's quick humor the thought of again having her company in a new body without pain brings me a measure of comfort, I send my prayer that you too can see her as you knew her as she grew up. What a joy to have her as a sister! Never a 'dull' moment, then you may wanted a dull moment.Ha! Thanks for giving me this time to reflect back on the Dove Family of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Sincerely,
Connie
