

Connie Kay Leever

November 4, 1943 - February 2, 2022

Connie K. (Gericke) Leever, 78, of Fort Collins, CO, passed away on February 2, 2022. Connie was born to Jack and Darlene Gericke on November 4, 1943, in Alliance, NE. The youngest of two daughters, she lived in Alliance for most of her life and graduated from Alliance High School. She was married to Sandy Leever on August 12, 1962. They had one child together, Sheila (Leever) Bacon. She moved from Alliance to Fort Collins in 2000 with Bill Carrell.

Connie worked at K-Mart for many years in Alliance, NE. She also worked as a homemaker and helped with 4-H events while Sheila was young. Connie enjoyed reading, watching crime and mystery shows, and spending time with her family.

Connie is survived by her special friend, Bill Carrell, daughter, Sheila Bacon (Larry), of Merna, NE, granddaughters Janice (Grayson) Lukasik of Florence, MT, and Sarah (Mark) Szakacs of Hyannis, NE, six great-grandchildren, and her dog Maggie. She is preceded in death by her spouse, Sandy, who passed in 1995, both parents, her sister, Darla Brestol, and her grandson, Spencer Bacon.

Memorial services will take place at a later date. Thank you to the staff at Columbine West Nursing Home for their excellent care. Friends and family can share condolences at goesfuneralcare.com.

“ I worked with Connie at Kmart and she was also a good friend- always so much fun, ready to laugh and friendly. I met Bill when I was county clerk, those two made a very special couple and it's wonderful they had so many years together. My sincere sympathy, and virtual hug to Bill (we always shared a hug when they lived here) Sheila and the rest of Connie's family. She was a good person and will be missed.
