“ I had the wonderful fortune to meet Skip and Linda this year in March as they were looking for a new home. I spent many hours working with them during that time and helping them find the home they purchased this year. Skip was such a sweet man who was determined to see that Linda was settled before he passed. I enjoyed their company so much, and we spent some time talking about life, love and dogs! It was a tough but very fulfilling time for them and for me to see them accomplish that goal. In that very short time, I connected with both of them and came to adore them both. I am so sad that Skip has moved on from this life, but will always carry his memory in my heart! Rest well sweet man. You were very loved!

“ My Husband, Skip, was a totally fun husband, and we did so many things together in our short 14 years of marriage. He hung in there when I was in grueling Nursing School and supported me all the way. He made a lot of sacrifices out of love. I am totally devastated with his loss. I will never be able to have a man as wonderful as him, and he was a gift to me from God. I also helped him find The Lord and he was so happy in the end that he did find peace with our Savior and Messiah, Yeshua HaMachiach! I love you Skippy and I'll see you soon! I love you Sweetie. Your loving wife, Linda

“ I met Skip through Linda Clancy and we had so many memorable and fun times through the years. Skip always referred to me as his "girlfriend". I know that Skip is singing in heaven and telling jokes. RIP Skip. Linda Miller

“ When we met Skip in the early 90s, he immediately became a good friend. He had just returned to Colorado from New Mexico to care for his father. Like his father, Lee, Skip loved people. We shared many meals, drinks, and good times filled with great stories and laughter. You will always be in our hearts, Skip. - John Eddington & Mary Westervelt.
