“ I was glad that I had the opportunity to come down and see Uncle Joe last year. The one thing I regret was I never got to thank you for getting that house for grandma across from Sacred Heart Church. Because when Joe my little brother and me would go to mass(mom and dad made sure we went) we wasn't able to sneak out anymore because grandma would be setting at that kitchen window watching for us and you didn't want her to see you because next time you saw grandma it wasn't pretty. Also I knew your brother Ray my dad always enjoyed you and Aunt Trudie when you came for a visit. Rest In Peace Uncle Joe

“ Growing up in Ogallala Neb. Uncle Joe was the only Uncle I really knew from my growing up years, I always remember the trips they made to Ogallala and the cookouts we had out at the lake and also the trips we made to Brush Colo,for the weekend cookouts, Jim, Barb and Mike were the only cousins I really got to know while growing up. In my later years when I made my yearly trips back to Ogallala Uncle Joe would always drive in from Co. and we would spend a afternoon playing cards and drinking scotch, he really loved to play cards and he was darn good at it, I will really miss him and will always remember the good memories of the times we spent with Uncle Joe and Aunt Trudy, may God bless their souls and may he find a great card club in Heaven.
