“ Our sincere condolences to the family and friends of Lyle. We pray that God fills all voids left behind by his passing.

We were surprised to learn of Lyle's passing because we just saw Lyle at our 50th class reunion at Argyle in May of 2013 and he was looking good, although in conversation I learned that he had survived some major medical episodes. In fact he nailed our then six year old son, Kyle, with a water balloon and got quite a chuckle out of it. Funny how we hadn't seen or spoken to one another in years yet immediately fell into comfortable conversation like it was only yesterday. I was very much looking forward to seeing him again.

Lyle, "Beaver" to me, was one of my best buds as a youth — we were both “town kids” and therefore had the opportunity to play and/or get into trouble together both during and after school. We also spent more than a few hours shooting baskets in the Myhre garage and played B-team basketball together in school. When Lyle moved to GF he pretty much left Argyle behind although I believe he enjoyed return visits in later years. He's one of a number of boys with whom we shared our youth but moved away from Argyle before we graduated. As meant to be - the best memories remain. Thanks for everything and rest in peace my friend.
