“ Nelson was a friend and fellow musician who loved to play his Lowrey organ. He had a great gift for learning songs and memorizing them which few people can do. We shared stories of music, woodworking and the Air Force. He will be missed and condolences to Jo who he loved and talked about in such a kind and positive way. Take care Nelson and keep heaven entertained with all those great old songs you love to play.

“ Nelson was a great guy, wonderful cook, and gifted craftsman. I remember so many summer days these last few years of hearing that saw and hammer as he constructed something new and creative for he and his beloved, JoAnn. He will be missed, but I am glad he is in Heaven and not suffering from any physical illness anymore.
