“ I met Patty on the golf course and we had many good golf and bridge games together, When ever we would play at Patty's house her dog would insist on sitting in the chair with me. This was a big dog and I would just move way over and make room. We had many good times together. I hadn't seen Patty this past couple of years - we both became ill and she and her beloved horse moved to Loveland. I will always miss her. Anita Cowdery

“ I remember the Hogans moving into their new house way out on what was then the outskirts of north Boulder in 1951 or 1952. Terry Hogan and I went to the same kindergarten class and spent lots of time playing together. Mrs. Hogan seemed very old to me then, and I guess 32 years old really was old! Clay and Patty were always part of the neighborhood and I remember hearing about the taxi company, stories about Clay's service in WWII and his appearing on "This Is Your Life", and her parents' early trips to Hawaii. They were the first people I ever knew who had gone to Hawaii! Terry and I stayed close and Patty was always there, a larger than life character! I think she is the last person from that generation who lived in that old north Boulder neighborhood and she will be missed!
