“ Deacon Rick wrote many wonderful pro life letters to the local paper, never wavering in his defense of the unborn. Truly God's servant on earth. Thank you and God bless. May the gates of heaven open wide for you.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the entire Grimler family. Rick was a very dedicated, loyal man who I know you all are very proud of, and feel extremely blessed to have been a part of his beautiful family. I worked with Rick at GROWMARK in the Controllers department for many years in the 1980' and 90's. The most special memory of I have of Rick, is as a deacon. My mother died of a sudden illness at BroMenn in March of 1994, and Rick brought much-needed comfort to my family, when he was so kind to drop by on his morning rounds to pray with me and my family, as we stood by her bedside during those final days. I will pray for peace for Rick and for all of you during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

“ We have many fond memories of Rick and the Grimler family. Our daughter Jean was very close to Susie growing up and she really liked spending time with Susie and her mom. I remember getting Rick and some of the other dads to sing back up for a rock and roll number at one of the epiphany talent shows. Who would have believed it , Rick singing on stage. We enjoyed Rick's sermons and applaud his strong support for the right to life cause. I seem to remember a new years eve at Ricks where he drew a line on the bottle of scotch and said "we'll drink to here and no further" .

Rick was a very nice man and an inspiration to us all. We are saddened by his passing and offer our prayers and condolences to his family. We sure enjoyed our time spent with the Grimler family.

“ As Epiphany Deacon, Rick made such an impression on us that we were aghast to learn on moving to another diocese in 1996, that there were no functioning deacons. His quiet, distinctive manner of speaking, fully charged with thought provoking substance, fashioned an impression of quality ministry that endures. Judy and daughters have ample reason to expect his exemplary talents will continue to be utilized in the service of his Creator.
Our sincere sympathy for the loss of a fine man.

“ Rick was my boss, a mentor and a role model when we worked together at GROWMARK. He was always generous and cared about people and about doing the right thing. I also knew Rick as Deacon at Epiphany Church and was honored that he baptized my daughter. He was like a father figure to me and I will miss him, but I know he is in a better place.

My sympathies and prayers to Judy and the whole family.

“ I was saddened to see Rick's obituary in the Bloomington, IL Pantagraph. Rick was serving as general manager of the Illinois Agricultural Auditing Association when I joined the firm right out of college in 1971. Rick left the firm shortly after that, but I had a great deal of respect for him and enjoyed working with him. He struck me as intelligent and hard-working, and also as a real gentleman and a man of deep integrity.

“ To All the Grimler Ladies:

I was driving my Lily and Ivy to music lessons this summer thru your past neighborhood. It got me thinking about the good times I spent at your home and how all of you are living your lives. I remembered a particular evening when Rick looked tired. I offered to assemble the new TV cabinet that he had just purchased, Katie whispered tell him you have put one together before or he will not let you do it. So right there and then I lied to a man of the cloth so I could take some weight off his shoulders. Well , that's how I justified the lie anyway. I managed to put the cabinet together even with Katies help.

I understand now why he may have been tired, raising 4 girls with Judy's help must of been hard work sometimes. I know now...because my 2 girls wear me out!! He managed to do a great job.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers while you cope with the loss of your husband, father.

My Respect and Love *
