“ There aren't accurate words to express how I feel, or how to help your family through this transition. Ron was a great friend, for many years, decades. He and John were friends for even longer. All I can hold onto, are the roller coaster of shared memories, making us laugh and cry at the same time. Ron did live life to the fullest. I know how much he loves his family, and what a joy his beautiful granddaughters gave him. He often told me how lucky he was to have a wife that would put up with him for so many years! Even though Ron wasn't a religious person, but Taylor, I'm still going to send all my positive thoughts and prayers to Ron and his loved ones.
I feel a big hole in my heart and miss Ron deeply. I'm just thankful that his pain is gone and I'm sure he's onto a new journey. Till we meet again...

“ Lisa and Taylor: So sorry to learn of Ronald passing. Our sincere condolences. We tend to think, when we were younger, that life would go on forever but sadly that is not the case. Except for the last few months I am certain that Ronald enjoyed every day. Can only imagine what a hole his passing leaves in your life. Our prayers are with you throughout these difficult times. Love to your family, Wayne and Beverly Shortridge
