“ Wilma was our neighbor while we lived in Cheyenne. She was the first friend we had in the condo complex. It was her love of dogs that brought us together. She loved our dog and our dog loved her as much as we loved her. She always had a smile for us. She is with Jesus now and oh the stories she is sharing. We love you, Wilma!

“ We referred to her as “our Miss Wilma.” We loved her. She loved our dogs; she tolerated us. Haha. She was our neighbor and our friend. My husband and I thought of her as family. Saturday evenings at Miss Wilma’s for snacks, drinks and lots of laughs were always something to look forward to. Wilma’s laugh was absolutely contagious! During my cancer and multiple overnight treatments in Denver were made so much easier because Wilma took care of our dogs while we were away. Without her we would have been at a loss. Our Miss Wilma. Glenn and I will see you again and we will have more laughs!
Love you...Kim & Glenn
