

Amy Rose Brobst

September 7, 1989 - April 27, 2013

Amy Rose Brobst, a long-time resident of Fort Collins, Colo. and most recently of Omaha, Neb., died late Saturday, April 27, in the crash of a small plane near Omaha.

Amy, 23, was a December 2012 graduate of Colorado State University where she majored in landscape architecture.

She is survived by her parents, Doug and Judy (Brown) Brobst of Fort Collins, and a brother Austin in Albuquerque, N.M. Born Sept. 7, 1989 in Lexington, S. C., she moved in 1998 to Fort Collins with her family where she was a 2007 graduate of Rocky Mountain High School.

Amy recently returned to Omaha as a project manager for Lanoha Nurseries where she had been previously employed.

A Celebration of Amy's Life will be held Saturday, May 11, at 12:00 p.m. in the South Auditorium of Timberline Church, 2908 South Timberline Road in Fort Collins. A reception will follow.

In lieu of flowers, it is suggested that donations be made to a scholarship fund in Amy's honor at: <https://advancing.colostate.edu/AMYBROBSTSCHOLARSHIP>

Contributions to the fund may also be made with checks payable and mailed to Colorado State University Foundation, P.O. Box 1870, Fort Collins, CO 80522. Please note the name of Amy Brobst on your check.

Survivors also include an aunt, Jennifer (Robert) Hollister, Steilacoom, Wash., and uncles Jack (Barbara) Brown, Williamsburg, Va.; Bill (Linda) Brobst, Germantown, Md. and Jim (Jennifer) Brobst, Columbus, Ohio. And cousins Suzanne (Brown) Zonner, Westerville, Ohio; Tom Brown, Hilliard, Ohio; Annie Brobst, Waltham, Mass.; and Levi Brobst, Columbus, Ohio.

“ I want to express my condolence in the loss of your precious Amy. She looks like i remember her from second grade - a beautiful child-only now, a lovely young woman. I remember her as a polite, well-mannered, eager-to-please student. She held a special place in my heart. The rose she gave me when your family moved away has always been a reminder of her and I often talked about her when it was in bloom - a rose to remind me of Amy Rose. May God bless and comfort your family in this time of loss. My prayers are with you all. Give Austin my love.

Sincerely,
Susan Mitchell

“ Judy, Doug, and Austin,
I am so sorry to hear about Amy. Austin was in my 4th grade class at Oak Grove. In fact, I still have a letter that he wrote to me. Please know you are in my prayers.

“ Doug , Judy, and Austin,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I remember Amy as Austin's little sister. I taught Austin in the second grade. I remember Austin and Amy coming to my house when you did some work for me. I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love,

“ Doug, Judy and Austin,

I was saddened to read of Amy's passing. I remember when she was a little girl and you would bring her with you when you were working on our Warner Woods Road house. And what a cute, sweet little girl she was! It sounds like she had a rich full life and she flourished in Colorado after ya' ll left Lexington. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. “ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy. It is especially an enemy when it strike someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Then John 5:28 will be fulfilled that reads; "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." I hope this message will offer some comfort in your time of sadness.
