

Andrew D. van der Hoop

January 30, 2025

Andrew “Drew” Daniel van der Hoop was born on Saturday, August 16, 1997, to Tracy Meisinger and Douglas van der Hoop in Boulder Colorado. Drew passed on January 30, 2025 surrounded by family. Drew attended schools in Loveland, playing saxophone in the jazz band and marching band. Drew was an artist, an electrician, a logical philosopher. Drew is survived by partner Dante Palombo, parents, step-father Gregg Meisinger, sibling Rebecca van der Hoop, paternal uncle, cousins, and grandparents, as well as feline companion, Zuil. Drew's humor will be missed by all.

Drew's memorial service will be March 1, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. at Strauss Cabin Farmhouse in the lower-level setting, not the sanctuary. A luncheon will follow at 12-12:30 p.m. Then, at 2:00 p.m., we will lead anyone who is inclined to Andrew's final resting place. Please bring a small rock to leave at the gravesite so that Drew knows you visited. RSVP is greatly appreciated so that we know how many chairs are needed and how much food to order.

“ Drew, I just learned of your passing and wanted to thank you for being such a great friend since middle school. Thank you for the laughs, the joy, the music, the video games, and helping me when I bought that piano before moving to school. There will never be another and I miss you already.

“ Because I live out of state, I was only able to meet Drew a few times. My very first impression of Drew was that he had the most beautiful smile. Then I was struck by how endearingly smart, quick-witted and charming he was. Words cannot express how saddened we are that the world has lost such a beautiful soul, and it is with a heavy heart that we send our deepest condolences to Dante and to all of Drew's family. May the happy memories bring you all peace and comfort.
