

Andy Manuel Lozano

December 20, 2018

Andy Manuel Lozano (Aka The 1 man army). Andy was 48 years young and died on December 20th, 2018 at home with his wife, threes sons, and two sisters right by his side. He was not alone the night the angels wrapped their wings around him with warmth and love for his journey home. 7770.

Andy was born on July 7, 1970 to Arnufu and Marcella Lozano in Fort Collins, Colorado. On April 13, 2010 Andy married Marilee Haaf in Las Vegas, Nevada. Andy lived in Fort Collins all of his special life, and he worshiped at the Vineyard Church of the Rockies, where he was baptized along with Marilee.

Andy loved to fish with his boys and grandchildren. He enjoyed bowling and coaching his boys, grandsons in wrestling. They ended their season last year with a 1st place finish. He also loved being outside grilling and drinking a few beers! He loved being in his yard with his grand kids. He loved watching his raiders and football in general but hated the broncos along with Donald Trump.

Andy's life was work, work, work where he accomplished the role of lead driller for Drilling Engineers. He loved to just be at work and was fortunate to have such a great friend in Dustin AKA(no chin Yahtzee) working along side him. His job gave him the opportunity to do lots of traveling around Colorado, Wyoming, Ohio, Washington, and New Jersey. He did the CSU freezing with Rick Rogers and professors. Andy was always a man who was on time, that was his big thing "Punctuality" and finishing the job. He was always proud of his work.

There are too many attributes and funny stories to mention, let alone put all down on paper.

Andy is survived by his wife Marilee, Daughter Talisha Lozano, Sons Anthony(Ana) Lozano, Marcus Lozano and Joseph (Kirsten) Cavitolo. Parents Arnolfo and Marcella Lozano, Grandchildren Izaac Lozano, Devon Lozano, Melody Lozano, Joseph Cavitolo, Anthony Lozano. Siblings Bobby, Julie, Monica, and baby sister Suzie.
