“ Although I had not seen Anthony for many years, I have thought of him often. We were close friends as kids (back in the Lesher days) and I remember spending most of my time at his house in Edora. I have always been fond of those times, Anthony was a sweet and caring person who I have never forgotten. My heart and sympathies to his family, fiancée and friends.

“ Anthony & Stan were a big part of our life as they were growing up. Their Mom was an especially beloved friend and Dee & I loved one another's children very much. My son James & my girls Ambeur & Taryn looked at Dee's boys boys like cousins and James & Antony formed a particularly close bond over the past year. We'll miss him so much, just as we miss Dee, and will think of him with great love just like we do his Mom.

Our hearts are with their family.

Stan - please know we are always here for you & love you very much.

“ I have known Anthony since he & Stan were little boys. Dee was my Colorado Mom and the boys were my little brothers. I weep at the loss of Anthony so young. He had a good heart, and he will be missed. He went through a lot for such a young person. I hope he's in Heaven with Our Heavenly Father, and that he will meet up with Dee & Coke and the rest of the family that has gone on before him.

“ I am so very, very sorry for the loss of your beloved Anthony. We do not know each other and I did not know Anthony but I want to express my sincere condolences as my own brother killed himself 29 years ago at the age of 23. I understand the unbearable pain you are going through and my heart aches that another family is going through this. I am thinking of you, his family, and wish I could ease your pain. If you feel like talking I am in the phone book. Again I am so very sorry. I'm sure he was a wonderful person.

Those simple things are what we are going to miss the most. We will never forget how no matter what, you were always there for us and made an effort to be a part of our lives. You are and always will be an amazing brother and uncle. We love you and take care of Nana!

“ Love you ant. wrote a little something for you

*Teardrops falling all around you, but your not here to see
Some of the people you left behind your friends, your family, me.
I spoke on your behalf, that day we said goodbye
I figured it was the least I could do for a man who touched my life.
I sit here with all this pain trying to choke back the tears
But itâ??s hard knowing lâ??ve lost my only brother thatâ??s been there all those years
The brother who taught me to protect my sisters and my mom
The brother I wrestled with outside in the front lawn.
Those days were filled with laughter, laughter love and smiles
And it kills me to know I wonâ??t see you again, at least not for a while
But when that day comes in heaven, when I see your smiling face
Ill just smile back, knowing, were in a better place.*

“ Hello there. I lost my baby brother, age 37, to suicide almost two years ago and it's a shocking pain like no other loss. I have taken to reading the obituaries, now and then, and I saw Anthony. What a good looking guy with a kind and friendly face. We have to believe that life on earth was too painful for these lost souls who take their own lives and find strength in knowing their pain is gone. God truly embraces the weakest and most needy among us and surely, Anthony is in the loving arms of God, knowing a peace he may not have felt on earth. I am sorry for your loss.

“ Anthony will be greatly missed. He will always be held close to our hearts where his mother, and Coke are held,too. Remember his smile, his laugh, and the way he rolled up one pant leg when he was a kid. He will be greatly missed.

“ Anthony was such a light in everyone's Life that he entered. He knew no strangers, laughed often, and lived Life to the fullest; always with a smile on his face and looking for the next adventure. I've known him since he was a kid, and he grew up to be an amazing man; one that I can say that I am proud to have loved, cared about and am blessed that he was part of my Life. My Life will never be the same without him next to me, and I look forward to the day we meet again. I know he is in good hands, and his mom Dee is looking after him now. The girls miss you; Anna wants you to know that you'll always be her bestfriend and Mae constantly says me "where's Shaggy, Mommy, I miss him". You will always be missed and loved. Take care of your soul, and until I see you again know that I love you. Always. More than there are stars in the sky & waves in the ocean ;)

“ It seems like yesterday we were together. But life seems to fail knowing we will not be together anytime soon. I feel so lost knowing I am alone. I miss you so much and would give anything to hear half your breath. I'm glad to know your were my only true friend the one who never turned his back on me. We went through so much together and I thought the worse had passed by. Oh how truly wrong I was. You are loved and missed every day Anthony and if we were going to see each other tomorrow it would not be soon enough. Until that day...
