“ What can we say about Artie? Other than he was a great friend, a funny friend, a true gentleman, a lover of the mountains and animals and a sincere gentle man.

We loved and respected Artie like our own father. We so enjoyed the times we spent with him. Keith loved stopping up their home in the Poudre Canyon and visiting and giving him and Irene a hard time! Artie was always outside working, moving rocks, feeding the squirrels or finding something constructive to do. He was in his element and so happy while living in the canyon.

We're honored to have met and known Artie for the last 20 and 30 years (or so). What a funny and wonderful guy. We will miss him very much. I'll miss the little kisses he gave me. He reminded me so much of my dad; quiet, sincere and so sweet. Good bye, sweet friend. Be in peace. We love you. Kim and Keith
