

Barbara Brock Wilder

November 25, 1941 - May 24, 2018

Barbara Brock Wilder died peacefully on May 24, 2018. She was born on November 25, 1941, in Denver Colorado. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Rev. Richard Wilder. Barbara loved to travel, spend time with her family and friends, attend the Central City Opera, and collecting art. As a fifth-generation Denverite, Barbara was a long-time member of St. John's Episcopal Cathedral in Denver where her Great Grandfather, Bishop John Franklin Spalding, is the founder and namesake. She is survived by her brother Stephen P. Brock, her children Christopher Wilder, and Anne Berry and four grandchildren Lance K. Berry, Catherine B. Berry, Christopher R. Wilder, and Collin S. Wilder. Services are TBA, and in place of flowers, memorial donations may be made to St. John's Pastoral Care Fund in Denver.

“ Barb and I were neighbors for many years in Denver. She was a delightful person, who seemed to have boundless energy. She was frequently on the go, meeting up with friends and family, enjoying the Botanic Gardens, traveling up to Central City, and countries beyond. She will be remembered by many.
