“ My Dear Bonnie, How I will miss you. I was just one of the many people who helped take care of you over the years at Spring Creek. Many times we laughed and cried together. I will never forget how you laughed as I tickled your pink little toes. You are now with your beloved husband and son. I can see you in heaven smiling and laughing. I miss you. Love, Cathy (P.S. tell my Dad Hi!)

She lit up every time she seen them. You are now their angel and I know you are smiling big and enjoying heaven with grandpa and uncle Rich. I love you!

“ Bonnie was someone you can never forget. She had a caring heart and personality. I knew her for only a short time but will never forget the smiles and the laughter. I am blessed to have known her.

“ My Dearest "Bon Bon",

You were the first to remember my name when I began work at Spring Creek, as the weeks and months followed I fell in love with my little tootsie, we would paint nails, and do hair, and simply laugh about many things in life; people that you had met, places that you had been, and all of the wonderful things you had done in life. You were such an amazing soul, beautifully placed in my life as someone to talk to, confide in, and share a great friendship. The picture of the two of us hangs on my fridge proudly as a token of our friendship and every time a look at it I am reminded of your sweet being.

Now you are in a much better place, sharing sunny days with your husband. I can only hope someone is there to paint your fingernails and fix your hair just the way you like it!

Thank you for being such an amazing woman Bonnie, and thank you for bestowing your friendship and faith within me.

*Love You Forever and Always,
Kymmy*
