“ I worked with Christie for many years at the City. She was so excited and had so many plans for her retirement - very saddened to hear about her sudden passing. Sending prayers to all of her family.

“ Christie we love you so much. Throughout your journey, and moves to stay as close to Phil's work as possible; we kept in close touch; hoping one day to get together for more frequent visits and good times with you and Phil. Your unexpected departure has left us all in disbelief, and feeling so empty. I Love You Christie. I hope we can all reunite with eachother someday when time allows us to.

“ Christie Rae. Tina Bug. Criddey Chris
My best friend not only cousin. I wish we were at the ranch once again doing our girl week end out. The giggles and the crafts we teach each other. Or just listening to the wolves in the dark and you sneaking in my room to scare me to death. You'd laugh so hard rolling on the floor. I'm so proud of how you made a life with the soul of your heart.

My heart weeps for your all the time. It's not fair you retired. Now dance with your amazing hubby.

*Love you Christie.

“ Many of Christie's former co-workers at the City of Fort Collins are simply hearbroken to hear of her passing and that of her beloved husband, Phil. We will always remember Christie's humor, helpfulness and kind spirit. May she and Phil rest in peace together.
