“ Chris was a truly caring man. He was always looking after family members and friends. I was fortunate to have him as my cousin and friend. For many years Chris and his family lived walking distance from me in Burbank. I spent a good deal of time at their house. After they moved to Colorado our visits were few but we spoke on the phone every few months. Our last in person visit was last June 10th. So glad my brother & sister-in-law and I had that time with Chris. Rest in peace dear cousin. Love, Kathrene

“ We say goodbye to a good one. Gosh, we love that guy. We had the blessing of having Chris, Sandy and Bob to be our neighbors and friends for over 15 years. Chris was amazing at starting conversations and always staying in touch. His gift of always a smile - always positive - is a memory we will cherish forever. He did good. He loved his family so much. He would always share his pride of his family - son, daughter, grandson... it is like the dude never had a bad day.

My wife Les recalls his contributions to the kids in the neighborhood- and how kind and thoughtful he was to our family. All our family - was touched and appreciated his kinship very much. We also appreciate his son Bob - staying in touch and carrying the torch forward.

“ Chris and I were preparing for a Super Bowl one year in Miami and he was having a bad morning, feeling a bit under the weather. But we had a meeting out at Joe Robbie Stadium and he didn't want to miss it. So he said to me, "Lou, you drive, I'll sit shotgun". The 40 minute drive from the Marriott downtown to the stadium had about 4 unintended stops... each stop Chris told me "pull over I have to throw up", and he did. I would be telling him let's go back. I'll get you up to your room, you need to rest. But he repeated, "no, I'll be alright". He want on that day to deliver several meetings without a glitch.

To Chris, (my mentor, and good friend): You will be missed! God bless you!

I'll never forget the giant smiles on Chris and Robert's face when I pulled up to say hi while we were fishing at Horsetooth Reservoir years ago!! He instilled that great passion in Robert also, and I am proud to call him my good friend and "fishing buddy"!! Chris will be loved & remembered by many, and Robert and I will pay tribute every time we fish! God bless you, Chris, and thanks for being such a great dad!!!
