“ I read the article about Debra - I appreciate Debra and all of her family for sharing her story. I never met Debra, but her plight struck a cord with me, as I had a friend in the very same position years ago. At that time there were no options, but she did ask her husband to help her end her life. He couldn't do it, and it was such a long journey for my friend and her husband & family. That is such a difficult decision for all concerned, and I truthfully asked God to step in and help Debra. Regardless, I am so glad that Debra is now at peace without any pain. God Bless Debra and all of you, her family. This journey has been difficult beyond words for all of you. My sincerest condolences to all of you. Thank you for sharing Debra's story.
