“ I will always remember the smile on his face and how kind he was. We sure had a lot of fun when we were boating in the 70's.

“ What to say...

This name has haunted me for 25 years. This man, I am sure in your eyes, was a wonderful man. In mine and my families eyes as well as others he was a monster that ripped several families apart. He almost took my father away from us, he took another man away from his family. We have spent every year, every november on that same day for 25 years remembering what he did. Why is that not in his obituary? Why doesnt it say he killed a man and destroyed several peoples lives? Or was it all forgotten about once he got out? Oh, wait, is was a crime of passion, so that makes it ok, right? Did he ever seek forgiveness for what he did? Or did he just act like it never happened?

He never asked us or the other people involved for forgiveness, I just pray that he truly discovered the Lord before he passed, that can be the only One to forgive him.

I will be at the funeral, not to morn him being gone, but to be relieved and thank God that I never have to worry about meeting the man that almost took my Father from me...

God Bless you all....

“ In November of 1983 Delmar shot me, his wife, and his wifes boyfriend. I barely survived, and still have health issues because of what he did. May the Lord forgive him, and, because my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ instructs me to forgive I do. I hope we meet in Heaven and I can visit with him then.
