“ I only knew Dr. Child for a semester and a half. But he was, and always will be, my favorite professor in my entire academic career. He was someone who always made coursework interesting, even for the often-mundane AUM calculations. I will never forget him, and I still think about him even to this day, almost 5 years later. Rest in peace Dr. Child, you will always be in my heart and mind.

“ We just learned of Dennis passing from Tammy and are so saddened by the news. Dennis was a wonderful father and role model for Derek. He was such a help to Katie in her year of need. We will always be grateful for his kindness. We will keep all of you in our thoughts and prayers.

There will be a void in Fantasy Football this year.

“ As cousins often do I lost touch with him and after many years, saw him at the funeral of an Uncle. We always had so much fun as children visiting when my family would go back to Utah on vacation.

I am very sad to hear of his passing. I want to extend my sympathy to Carla and family.

I know that time will heal. Take care.

“ Although I did not work closely with him, Dennis always took time to say hello when our paths would cross. I met him when he began his wonderful relationship with the Key Academic Community. He was always so thoughtful and caring.

I last saw him on Thursday the 6th at the Key end of the year program and even though we didn't get to visit, I remember thinking how glad I was that he was there and that Carla could enjoy the evening with him. In retrospect, what a gift that was for Carla to experience the great love that the students and staff had for him, and his great love for all of them.

My deepest condolences to all of his beloved family.

“ To the family of Dennis....

As a young child I remember Dennis as a real prangster. Family reunions were so much fun because of his fun loving spirit.

We lost contact for many years until my brother, Bob, brought us together for a breakfast in Colorado. Dennis hadn't changed a bit and I found him even more endearing.

I'm saddened by his passing and want to wish you my heartfelt sympathy. He was truly one of the good guys.

Right now, I'm sure he's exploring heaven's rangelands with his Mom and Dad....and they are all smiling.

*With love,
Vickie*
