“ I send my deepest condolences to our family in the loss of our beloved Diana. I am grateful for my treasured memories of our Colorado family reunions; in which cousins from coast to coast would travel to attend. Grandmother Bessie Richards would spend hours cooking and I remember how hard Diana worked helping with the preparation and clean up. I can still picture her sprinting around in helpfulness. Diana was a beautiful lady, both spiritually and physically. It was always a pleasure to be in her company.
