

Earl Burch

May 22, 1921 - April 8, 2012

Earl A. Burch, age 90 of Fort Collins , Colorado , died April 8, 2012 at a local nursing facility. A private service is being planned. Earl Allen Burch was born May 22, 1921 in Loveland , Colorado to David and Iona Burch. He grew up on the family farm in West Loveland . In his late teens, Earl lived in Denver where he met his wife, Mildred Joy Kilgore. They were married May 28, 1942 in Denver . Earl served in WWII with the United States Navy. After the war, Earl became an electrician, living and working in Greeley, Fort Lupton and Boulder . He was a long standing member of IBEW Local # 68 and retired from NCAR (the National Center for Atmospheric Research) eventually settling in Fort Collins. He and Mildred “Mickey” enjoyed many years of traveling and fishing in their retirement. Earl was well loved by anyone who met him and his delightful sense of humor will be greatly missed. He is survived by Mickey, his wife of nearly 70 years; two sons, Mike of Loveland and Kim of Centennial; six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. His daughter, Valerie preceded Earl in Death.
