“ Ed was the love of my life. We met in Phoenix the summer of 1980 and shared four wonderful, short months together. Ed was always smiling. He was the most handsome, gentle man I have ever known. The days we spent together were the best of my life.

I came across this page when searching for Ed's contact info, fully expecting to once again think about calling and then decide against it. I'm so sad it's now too late and I will never see him again. I pray Ed is at peace and knows I have never forgotten him, never stopped loving him, and will miss him always.

*“oh, I've seen fire and I've seen rain
I've seen sunny days that I thought would never end
I've seen lonely times when I could not find a friend
But I always thought that I'd see you, baby, one more time again, now”*

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Ed's friends and family ...I'm so sorry we lost touch ...just found out... I knew Ed back in the early 80's in Phoenix -- we had some great adventures then ... Ed, Peg, Tom, Kerrie, and Jack. Ed, looking back, you were always the sensible one that kept us all on the right track, always doing and saying the right thing. You were one of the smartest people I ever met. We'll never forget you. May God Bless all who knew and loved you, of which I know there were many. Rest in Peace Ed - til we meet again.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. May you find comfort in Ed's memories. He will be greatly missed by all.

He knew me as the burrito lady and we'll miss his smiles at the Community Kitchen were he visited daily.

God with you,

Mary

“ Thanks, Edwin, for the tax talks, your straight skinny on those without roofs overhead, and generally positive view of this world when your circumstances certainly allowed otherwise. Thanks for your honesty and transparency, and your readiness to share with others the limited resources available to all as opposed to filling your cup full though only half a cup remained.

We will miss you here and look for you on the other side.

“ I will miss Ed's quiet voice and manner. He was always current on City government affairs, and his views showed his deep understanding of local issues. He was a staunch friend. I pray that he rest in peace.
