“ Having met Eileen Gilanyi at numerous family reunions, I found her to be a genuinely warm and delightful dynamo. When she and my mother-in-law, Betty, got together at those reunions, the lights in their eyes danced as they smiled at each other, talked, reminisced and made music together again. It was a delight to capture these two sisters in photos many times.

Still today, Betty talks fondly about Eileem very often as she shares family stories with us around her dinner table on Wednesday evenings. Yes, even at 90, Betty remains a great cook and, like her younger sister, she enjoys sharing her home and hospitality with others.

Aunt Eileen set a terrific example with her annual Christmas letter. It was always newsy and usually included some sketch or drawing from Aunt Eileen. Today, that wonderful tradition continues to keep extended family connected through the many colorful, well-written & newsy Christmas letters sent each year from Aunt Joan and Uncle Dan's grown kids, our cousins.

Although we are unable to attend the services to honor the life of Aunt Eileen, we will keep a candle lighted here in Dayton this weekend as we, collectively, will be fondly remembering a wonderful, loving, talented and energetic Christian named Joan Martha (Johnson) Dueppen.

We are sending our deepest sympathies to each and every member of Aunt Eileen's devoted family. You are all so special and we are grieving with you.

With love,
D.J. & Trudy Cordero and Family

“ Tribute: I have such fond memories as a child of Eillen. Our parents were good friends and whenever we were together, I always thought she was just the kindest lady. Soft-spoken and just nice to all of us kids. We were in awe of her accent! Thought that was so kool. Remember, we were kids. By best to Bob and Dana and Jennifer and your families.
