“ Aunt Betty would visit my family's home periodically after she moved to Colorado for what she called, "Erdle dinners." The house was always bustling with her bubbly chatter and infectious laugh. She had a passion for life and an interest in everything. Whenever Aunt Betty visited, there were preparations to be made. The house was cleaned and, of course, the cat was locked outside. We had many debates about her view that cats were evil, but dogs were good. She was strongly committed to her beliefs and there was no convincing her otherwise.

Once she took me along on a shopping trip to find for her the perfect shoes for an occasion. There were many, many criteria for the shoes...the color, material, the toe, the heal, the height, width. Now, we never did find the shoes, to many a salespersons' disappointment; but we did connect and found out about each other, through the Buckwell shopping tradition, which was more about bonding than buying. This was a tradition shared by Betty's mother and each generation, including her sisters and my mother. Aunt Betty will be missed. She was a more than an Aunt, she was a Great Aunt.

“ We will always remember the wonderful years we had together. We first met at Jay and Terry's youth baseball game at Bauder in 1973. Of course Don, you and Nick coached the team. We spent many years camping, partying, and enjoying everything we all did as a family. Sue used to babysit our kids when we all went out. They loved Sue to babysit. I still remember Thanksgiving at your house and Xmas at ours playing penny poker with everyone. Those times will always be remembered as the "Good Old Days". Our love to you Don, Sue, Tim and Terry. We will always remember Betty for her kindness and generosity. She was a wonderful friend and a very special lady. She will be sadly missed. Love Diane & Nick Janicki

“ My deepest condolences to Don, Timmy, Susie, and Terry. My fondest memory of Betty was her beauty, inside and out. She was always smiling and happy, so soft spoken and very sweet. Don and Betty were the "perfect" couple. She was such a loving and gentle mother. It was a joy to babysit for you kids. I will cherish those memories forever. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
