

Emery McSay

January 16, 1920 - July 1, 2012

Emery Viola McSay, age 92, of Fort Collins, Colorado entered her heavenly home July 1, 2012 at Good Samaritan Ft. Collins Village in Fort Collins. A memorial service will be held Sunday July 15, 7:00pm at First Christian Church, 2000 North Lincoln Ave., Loveland, CO. Emery Viola Greenwood was born on January 16, 1920 in Macksville, Kansas to Arthur and Gladys (Endsley) Greenwood. She moved to Colorado at age 10. After graduating from Greeley High School in 1937, she married Theron E. McSay on June 18, 1942 in Sidney, Nebraska. The majority of their life together was spent farming in Orchard, Colorado before moving to Fort Collins in 1966. Mrs. McSay was a longtime and active member of both the Rebekah Lodge and First Christian Church. Much of her free time was spent doing needlework, playing cards and volunteering at church. She enjoyed the Denver Broncos, sunsets, horses, sunflowers, dogs, and the mountains. She especially loved spending her winters in San Benito, Texas. Emery shared her smile, heart full of love, and enthusiasm for life with all. Emery was preceded in death by her husband in 2002. She is survived by her two children: Ann E. McSay and Theron A. McSay, but she was considered 'Mom' to many. She is further survived by numerous loving nieces, nephews, along with many dear friends and family from various places. The family of Emery kindly request that any memorial donations be made to Freedom Service Dogs, 2000 West Union Ave., Englewood, CO 80110 or to First Christian Church, Loveland.

“ Dearest Aunt Emery I just want to thank you for being my aunt. I will always remember you on the farm working hard and taking good care of Uncle Theron and my cousins. You were the funniest lady I have ever known. You always had a sparkle in your eyes and a warm and loving heart. You were truly an inspiration to my life and the lives of my siblings. I will always love you and I can't wait til the day we meet again in heaven together forever with our heavenly father, Jesus Christ. God Bless you Auntie. Your niece Eleanor

“ Thank you Mama for being in our lives, you were a wonderful lady. You have made our lives better for being in it. It has been a blessing to know you, we will miss you down here on earth but I know all our loved ones are singing so loudly for you in Heaven. One beautiful lady in earth and now one beautiful lady in Heaven. Will always love you and miss your kindness and love. Give my Daddy a hug for me. I know he is welcoming you home with Theron and so many more!!

“ May God bless you Emery, and your loved ones. I met Emery and her daughter at Good Sams. I haven't known them long, but enjoyed the time I did. They were kind, loving, fun people to be around.

Emery is a special angel to watch over them now. God Bless you all. Mary Doran
