Emily Anne Miller, age 14 months, of Fort Collins, Colorado, died Sunday, August 16, 2009 at her home due to neuroblastoma, a childhood cancer, which was diagnosed this past March. Throughout the many months of treatment her gentle and enduring spirit shone through and she was rarely without a smile. She was the baby sister of Allison. In addition to her parents and sister, Emily leaves to mourn her passing her paternal grandmother, Mary Anne Miller; aunts and uncles, Susan and Jon Blatt, Joyce and Bill Lockhart, Jeff and Joy Miller and Mike and Denise Miller; and her cousins, Michael, Kathleen, Alexander, Christian, Zeke, Marissa, Isabelle and Alex. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10:30 AM Thursday at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, 5450 South Lemay Ave., Fort Collins.

“ Dear Jay, Nancy and Allison,

We were heartbroken to hear about little Emily. I am at a loss for words, but want you to know how blessed I feel to have known her for this short amount of time. I will always remember her sweet little smile and the way she looked at her big sister at our first playdate.

If there is anything we can do for you, please let me know. I am so sorry.

“ I do not know you, but my sympathies are with you. Your daughter was a beautiful child and my heart broke when I read of her passing in the Herald Dispatch obituaries. I have two children and cannot imagine the pain you are going through. I can only express my sincere sorrow for your loss.
