“ Our father, Les, was Bub's brother. Our family moved to the Washington, DC area when we were about 5 years old and while Dad traveled frequently to Denver on business, we didn't see Aunt Eva and Penny until almost 50 years later. We are so grateful we reestablished our loving relationship with Aunt Eva and Penny and her family after so many years. There was so much we missed. Our love and prayers are with you all.

“ Dear Penny, Don, and family,

In behalf of our whole family, please accept our love, prayer, and condolences for you having lost your very dear and precious mother and grandmother. She was my dear aunt.

Aunt Eva was an elegant lady. I never saw her less than well-manicured, well-dressed, and well-composed. Her home was always in perfect order. In spite of great crisis, she remained strong and positive in her outlook. She was a great wife and mother. She was a special sister-in-law to our mother and aunt to us four kids.

She and Uncle Bub took our family in when we first moved to Denver in 1941. I remember her as an excellent seamstress and admired her braided wool rugs. She was a good cook, also, and I cherish the parsnip salad recipe in her writing that she sent me 10 years ago at my request.

We were always impressed with Aunt Eva's dedication in caring for you, Penny, when you had polio and during your ongoing recuperation. Her loving care was amply rewarded with your gratitude and sweet attitude. She encouraged you to overcome the great odds you faced with your handicap, and your accomplishments prove that it succeeded.

Her loving, selfless, and giving spirit continued in the extensive care Uncle Bub needed.

We had always hoped Uncle Bub and Aunt Eva could visit us in Alaska. It was not to be.

Miles separate us, but our hearts pray that you will accept the comfort God extends by receiving His offer of everlasting life through the precious blood of His Son, Jesus Christ.

With love and compassion,

Marlene
