“ *Woody was an outstanding individual with great strength, humor, wit, intelligence and passion for those people and places that he loved.
He will be greatly missed and hugely remembered. Woody made lasting positive impacts here in the Mokelumne Wilderness on the Eldorado National Forest. Thank you Woody for setting the example!*

“ It's hard to understand why people are taken from us, but find comfort in knowing you were a special part of such a well-lived life. May happy memories carry you through this sorrowful time.

Tim Woo - July 02, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Janet - Our hearts are with you. Woody was truly one of the "good guys" ... I smile when I think of him with all your "kids" ... Know we are thinking of you and wishing we could help across the miles.

*Love you

“ Because of a little black dog, we had the honor of meeting Woody & Janet 8 years ago. Two sweeter people you will never meet. We had the honor of their visits many times over the course of these years and it is the laughter I will remember most. Woody's quick wit just endeared him to us. We are all richer for knowing him . . . a bright light may have been extinguished on this earthly plane but his spirit shines on brightly in the heavens. I saw his star last night in the bright Montana sky and could hear his chuckle reverberate through the sky. Rock on, dude . . . we will always love you and promise to keep your sweet bride close to our hearts. For every tear a memory, for every memory a smile.

Until we meet again,
Warren & Sandy

“ We know what a wonderful, optimistic person Woody was, from his parents. He was a real fighter, and did his best to overcome the cancer that was taking his life. Maynard kept us up-to-date on how things were going, and shared some of Woody's & Janet's letters. We actually only met Woody and Janet once, but felt close because of being such good friends with his parents. We offer our deepest sympathy and pray that God will be with you all and help you through this time of sorrow.

“ My life has been enriched by knowing you Woody and of course, my sister Janet. I'll never forget that first phone call from you, and all the fun times since. A heart as big as the world, we will all miss you so, but I know we shouldn't mourn your loss, but celebrate your life.

Love always from the CA schippies and me

“ Dearest Big Brother, your heart and spirit will be greatly missed in this life. Thank you for always being there for us, your unconditional love and understanding, patience and teaching will carry us through, until we meet again. I will be missing my big brother, your comfort and guidance, but most of all I find myself incredibly grateful to have loved, and been loved by such an amazing, talented, creative, funny, fun, stubborn, intelligent and loving man. We will keep your fires burning... Love always, Kat & Nick
