“ I met Fred when my mom worked with him at InDesign back around 1968. He was a good friend of our family and influenced my life in many ways. I remember his being the uncatchable bachelor for so long. He is the only person I know who had a urinal in his house. I remember helping him build his cabin and his Saint Bernards .He was one of my three "adopted" uncles that helped me learn how to be a good man.

Although I haven't seen him in many years,he has often been on my mind.

“ I worked with Fred for many years at AE he was always a joy to talk to and welcoming. I remember him from the meetings coming up with funny whity remarks as he set up the slide show and camera equipment. I was sorry to see him leave the company.

“ Fred was one of a kind. A friend who treated those around him as a member of his family. He will always be remembered those he served and those who served with him. We are quite sure he is hosting a bbq party in heaven tonight.

“ Many fond memories of Fred visiting his aunt Katheryne Nelson in Decatur. We all loved his visits. Definitely a favorite of the family! The Patrick Nelson family sends our deepest sympathy to our cousin's family.

“ I worked with Fred at Advanced Energy. He was always so full of life, had a dry sense of humor and kept the accounting department laughing! I send my prayers to the family, as I went through the cancer stuff, for the lack of a better word, with both of my parents. Fred was always supportive to me, and I would like to pass that onto the family! Bless you all! Fred will be missed!

“ As a contract Graphic Designer, I worked with Fred at Advanced Energy in the mid-2000's. We developed a friendship that lasted all the years since. Fred also studied Modelmaking under my father when he was teaching at the Art Institute of Chicago (not sure of those dates) but my father remembered him. -Jeff Maust

“ I worked with & across the aisle from Fred for 9 years at AE, and visited him often at Ace Hardware in the years following our AE careers. Fred was a master barbecuer, quick with his wit & dry sense of humor, and a provided great encouragement and assistance to those with whom he came in contact.

Fred will be greatly missed by the multitudes who knew him.
