

George Gaebler

June 11, 1918 - May 26, 2012

George Frederick Gaebler was born to Alexander H. Gaebler and Madaline B. Lind on June 11, 1918, in Omaha, Nebraska. George died Saturday May 26, 2012 at the age of 93. He moved with his parents, at a young age, from Omaha to Chicago; where George finished school including college and went to work as a stress engineer for the Martin Marietta Company. George married Mary Claire McDermott on January 10, 1942 before he joined the Navy during WWII. After the war George and Mary Claire moved to Middle River, Maryland, where he continued to work for Martin and they had four children. In 1960 George, Mary Claire and family moved to Littleton, Colorado and he continued to work for Martin Marietta until his retirement in 1985. At that time George moved to Fort Collins and lived at Parkwood Estates. George loved to read and attend mass at Blessed John the 23rd Catholic Church in Fort Collins. He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife. He is survived by his children Noel (Clyde) Proctor, George F.(Laura) Gaebler, Jr. , Francis (Christine) Gaebler, Alexander (Karen) Gaebler, & numerous grand and great-grandchildren. A memorial mass will be celebrated at 10:00 am June 13th at Blessed John 23rd University Center, 1220 University Ave., Ft. Collins.

“ I first met George when I graduated from college and went to work for Martin Marietta in Littleton, Colorado. Francis, I hope you remember the story that I told you about George at Martin Marietta, about a missile launch in Florida. It is a good story for you to remember him.

Many years later, my mother-in-law, Charlotte Howard, was a resident at Parkwood Estates and I was surprised to learn that George was also living there. Life always has a way of surprising one. George had a long and interesting life, my condolences to the family.

“ To the family of George, Your Dad was a very special man. I thought the world of him. He loved his family so much. Get him started talking about those grandkids and he would light up! He would tease the housekeepers and treated us with so much respect. I can't count how many times he adjusted my eyeglasses or tightened them for me! I ordered him new drapes a few years ago and he stood back admiring them..haha. I have so many good memories with George. I know he is in Heaven sitting in a beautiful place reading a book. God Bless your family, sincerely, Michele (former PWE housekeeper)
