“ Please know that George will be sincerely missed by all who knew him. His good humor and spiritual manner were present in all he did. Our deepest sympathy is with you Marcia and your whole family. May God bless you with His strength and show you His love in these difficult days.

“ George was a special friend and colleague throughout our time in ministry. We graduated from seminary together, neighboring pastors, staff-members together and supporters of each others ministries. I admired his leadership skills, the very personal ways he encouraged ministry in others and his knowledge and openness to ideas and new growth. The church was enriched through his ministry.

“ The message of George's death reached into the memory of our first meeting when he brought students from Eden Seminary to a rural church near Geneva, Iowa a number of years ago. It was an immersion experience of rural ministry. This idea must have worked because all three of them came to Iowa after graduation to pastor congregations! George's ability to be infectiously enthusiastic was a true gift.

“ I will always remember being next to George in the Plymouth Church Choir with his strong, marvelous voice. Also, his thoughtful leadership during the Sunday morning worship services at the Plymouth Men's Fellowship Retreats at the Sunshine Mountain Inn. He will be missed, greatly. Phil Weber
