

Haley Kristine LaChapelle

October 26, 1995 - June 20, 2015

On June 20th, our shooting star Haley Kristine LaChapelle went home to be with our Lord Jesus.

She will be dearly missed by many but especially her family including her sibling's, A.j. LaChapelle, Kierstin Wingstrom, Larissa Wingstrom and her parents Desiree and Chris Wingstrom.

Her vivacious and passionate spirit that captured so many of our hearts will be hard to find in another. Much like the comet Haley was named after we only had a short glimpse of her dynamic spirit and charisma that will leave our world a little less bright. Haley was a very talented artist and passionate poet with words only used from her heart to express her love and caring to others.

Haley was born October 26th 1995 in Tacoma, WA., but moved to Fort Collins at a very young age with her family. Haley has had the opportunity to travel often but felt there was no better place on earth than Fort Collins, CO.

She is preceded in death by her biological father A.J. LaChapelle JR., her grandfather Dan Lowther and great grandmother Alice Bailey.

“ Oh Haley Honey, we miss and love you so much. You were way to young to leave this earth but at least we know you are an angle in Heaven cause trouble and keeping them young forever! I will never forget when I watched you guys when you were just little, your sis wasn't even walking and you were so mad that you couldn't leave the house to go do God knows what But then we played games and you were over it! You were the cutest little kid ever and grew into an beautiful young lady! I love you sweetheart! You will forever be missed:)

“ When we first met, I was the outcast. Didn't have many friends but she took me in. Made me feel welcome and always had my back. We were looking forward to seeing each other again this summer when I came to visit...But, I still promise to come see her. She was the best friend anyone could've ever had.

“ I remember ditching classes together to talk about boys and there was a lot of drama we got through together. I remember going to McDonald's for lunch and one time acting like your girlfriend so that the weird guy there would stop hitting on you. I love you, baby girl. May you rest in paradise, and I hope you remain crazy. You will forever be missed.
