

Harline Ann Larkey

October 6, 1950 - August 31, 2021

Harline Ann Larkey, 70, of Livermore, CO, passed away August 31, 2021 after a long battle with cancer.

Harline was born in Wichita, KS to Harlan and Betty Dean Bond on October 6, 1950. She attended Kansas State University and graduated with a Masters in education. She was a member of the association of professional dog trainers, and she taught Equine Anatomy at a private school near Wellington, CO. In addition, she worked as a Vet Tech in both Fort Collins, Colorado and Wichita, Kansas.

Harline was an accomplished canine trainer, and was known for her business, Paws Wise, that she operated for many years. Her love for dogs and horses spanned over 30 years. She showed Great Danes in the breed ring and trained horses in the art of dressage; one horse was off the racetrack and one was a pickup horse for rodeos. She was always there if anyone needed help or advice with their animals.

Harline is survived by her husband, Nolan Larkey, of Livermore, CO and was preceded in death by her parents.

“ I just learned of Harline’s death yesterday in the KStater. I had been searching to find her. She was a Bridesmaid in my wedding 50 years ago. I was trying to relocate her and invite her to our celebration. I am so sorry to learn of her death. She was a dynamic, energetic and good friend in college. Prayers for her family. 🙏🙏🙏
