“ My Uncle Harry, my godfather, was a truly unique, wonderful person. He showered love on my siblings and me as if we were his own. I will always cherish the summer barbecues, swimming, comparing tans, so many other family get-togethers - as well as his witty sense of humor. Uncle Harry shared my love of France, and would share his stories with me when I was learning the language. I will always hold you close to my heart, Uncle Harry.

Love,
Mary

“ Harry was the kindest man i ever knew.

in 1956, he was instrumental in getting me a job at Fairchild Camera in Syosset II. He managed my "wedding " diner and presented me with a zippered leather book case i used for about 30 years. He was into landing gear design at the time and I ended my "career" with landing gear design too. He always said that then plane MUST land!!!

Harry was a kind, generous man who i wish that I knew for my entire life. We lost touch when I moved to just about every where on earth after the mid sixties and Harry and Kay moved from Flushing to Colorado.

I was at Camp Carson, (now Fort) in the early 50's and had a great affection for Golden, a city where the "WEST REMAINED". Those were the days.....

Harry married into the Kelly family , 3 daughters, Mimi, (a great Gil Hodges fan) Kay and Marion, and I always felt as one of their family whenever we, the Gearys got together for card playing every friday night. I remember the new game Blitz i introduced to the players, we played to dawn many an time.

Dear Kay, I am so sorry for the loss of Harry, I always remember him whenever Joan and I talk about the good old days with the Kellys.

Warmest regards to Kay and their children.
