“ My God! Heather was such a bright light in my life. Though I know the pain she was going through had to be more than most of us can imagine, she never ceased to be concerned with me and my circumstances. Whenever we would meet at the Murphy Center for Hope or Catholic Charities for lunch, she would always come up to me and give me a hug (mostly for my sake). She would always ask me, “How are you doing?” After a moment of my sniveling about whatever rigmarole I may have been going through, I would look into her eyes and see the genuine concern for me and feel her pain. Girlfriend you are sorely missed and will never be forgotten. Finally you have peace.
