“ Jann and I just found out about Howard's passing. Jann said he was one of the best bosses she ever had. Jann remembers that he had pictures of all of his kids from grade school in his office when they were all in college. The field trips to band birds are a highlight of Jann's time with the Division of Wildlife. Our hearts go out to LeeAnn, Melissa and the rest of his family. He was a wonderful person that will be missed.

“ Howard was a great friend and truly a unique individual. His contributions to migratory game bird management in the Central Flyway and North America are remarkable. He was an incredibly hard worker and was forever concerned about the welfare of migratory bird resources and our hunters. We had lots of great times together - at meetings, wingbees, recreational adventures and hospitality rooms. I will never ever forget the night the Central Flyway crew was invited to Dick Hopper's house for dinner - Howie's jokes had us rolling on the floor. We will all miss Howie and his sense of humor. My heartfelt condolences to you, LeeAnn, and all of the family. Mike Johnson, North Dakota

“ Howard was a very special friend to my wife, Gayle and me during all the years of my association with the Central Flyway Waterfowl Technical Committee. His warmth, friendliness and sharing attitude welcomed me to the CFWTC was very much appreciated during all of those years. He always seemed to have an interest in birds from Alberta, some of it probably based on his early work with geese in Alberta during a period that seems like eons ago. His interest in Alberta birds persisted throughout my career and it was not uncommon to receive a phone call from Howard late in the fall wanting to know when we were sending those fat mallards south. Howard was the first to teach me how people in Colorado spelled Canada, that being C-eh-n-eh-d-eh! Only Howard could come up with something like that. I also remember the first time I brought Gayle with me to a CFWTC meeting. We ran into Howard in the hotel hallway and when I introduced him to Gayle, his immediate response was "But this is not the same lady you had with you at the last meeting." And this to a lady he had never met before..... Only Howard! Oh the memories.

LeeAnn, we extend our sincere condolences to you and your family. We all share in your loss but he leaves us with a host of fond memories. We will remember and cherish those memories so long as we live. Our hope is that you, too, have many, many fond memories to cherish. All the best to you LeeAnn.
