“ Dear Jean and family,
Please accept our condolences during this difficult time. Despite your tremendous loss, I hope that you find comfort in the fact that none who knew him will ever run short of fond memories of him. What a legacy Jim left for his family, believe me, this does sustain you at times. In fact we had a brief cross in paths at Burdick Inc. when he was there before I started. He paved the way for me with his good works, Bob would have appreciated that as well! Take care of yourself and I will keep you in my prayers.

“ Jeannie, Dad was very saddened by the news of Jim's death. I know how much he wanted to get out to Colorado and see Jim but his own health didn't allow it. He'll miss his brother very much. He has always spoken lovingly of the closeness of the three brothers.

I wish we could have had the opportunity to be there with you.

Love, Pam

“ With Jim's passing, some of the joy went out of the lives of all who knew him. He had the rare great gift of brightening any home he entered. When we hiked with him, his humor could bring sunshine to a cloudy day. We were so fortunate to have had such a friend.

“ Jim was a great leader and volunteer in the Poudre Golden K Kiwanis Club. We have over 100 retiree members and as President-elect, Jim would have taken office as President on Oct. 1, 2010. He would have been a great President. Donations will be made by in my name to the Poudre Golden K Kiwanis club and to the Community Foundation of Northern Colorado to be held in the Poudre Golden K Fund. We will greatly miss Jim.

“ My father was a man of honor, integrity, and enormous wisdom. He clung to his values, most especially the value of hard work. He held education and service to others in high regard, and was an example of both to all of his family. We, his family, must commit to upholding his cherished values to the degree that we endeavor to make our own lives a reflection of his. I have every confidence that he is looking down from above. Lord help us all to be examples of his character, his wishes. We must all make a difference in this world. That is what HE did. He made a difference. Loving daughter,
