

Jean Gail Barrera

January 13, 1950 - March 13, 2015

Jean Gail Barrera, nee Greaves, died of pancreatic cancer in Fort Collins, CO on March 13, 2015. She was 65 years old.

Born January 13, 1950 in Brooklyn, NY, she grew up in Broomfield, CO and spent her earlier years living in San Diego, CA and Keenesburg, CO before settling in Fort Collins in 1990. She worked toward social justice for the homeless and disabled as a volunteer coordinator for Catholic Charities Northern and Disabled Resources until retiring in 2012. She served on many boards and committees and was a well-known figure in both the non-profit sector and the Fort Collins Catholic community. In her younger years, she loved horseback riding. She enjoyed spending her time gardening, entertaining, reading in the sunshine, and spending time with her dogs and family. She will be well remembered for her sparkling eyes, beautiful smile, excellent cooking, remarkable talent in making a home, and service to others. She is survived by her stepmother Dorothy Greaves of Broomfield, CO, her son Matthew Hyland of Seattle, WA, and her daughter Jaime Brede of Breckenridge, CO.

Services will be held at 11:00 am on Friday, March 27th at Saint John XXIII Catholic Church. All friends and family are welcome to join us in honoring and celebrating Gail's life.
