

Jeffrey Paul Rehner

September 22, 2018

On Saturday night, September 22, Jeff Rehner left this world and all of us are the worse for it.

He possessed many skills and talents and was generous in the sharing of them. A Good Samaritan by nature, Jeff was the first to lend a hand regardless of what tool or task was required. It often made him late somewhere else but that was Jeff.

Jeff could chat up anyone and he could make you laugh even if you were determined to do no such thing.

He was well read on many subjects and had an astonishing memory for detail. He was a champion of one-liners and recalled relevant quotes from both current and obscure sources. He could assemble facts into solutions whether it involved building, mechanics or public policy. He was a very surprising fellow.

Left to navigate life without him now are his fine sons, Christian and Lars, their mother Anita, a niece Hannah, his sister Diane, and his beloved Barb.

Many in the Martinez Park neighborhood will feel the loss of his light. Smart, kind, cheerful men are hard to come by and Jeff was all that.

A celebration of his life will be held Sat., Oct. 6th at 2:00pm at 415 N Sherwood St.

In the spirit of his memory, we might all respond to each other with compassion whether known or not. Jeff would approve.

“ Jeff I miss you. I worked with him in the oil fields. He was twice most of ours age but ran circles around us all. He was full of knowledge it was a blessing knowing you

“ I am sad to hear of Jeffs passing and send deepest condolences to his family.

Jeff and I were good friends in New Canaan, growing up in the same neighbourhood along with Rob and John Wilson. We spent a lot of time camping and roaming the woods around the reservoir behind his house. We hiked together on the Appalachian trail in Connecticut in 1970 and I've attached a picture with Rob second from left, me center and Jeff second from right, along with two other friends. Jeff was always fun loving and we laughed a lot. He touched many lives in a good way.

With warmest regards, Ted Barnes, Edmonton, Alberta

“ Jay and I are deeply saddened by Jeff's passing. He was a dear friend and an all around good man. He will never be forgotten. We are so sorry that we will not be able to attend the memorial, it sounds like the perfect tribute to Jeff.
