

Jesse Storm Ortega

September 17, 1992 - January 9, 2016

Jesse Storm Ortega, age 23, passed away on Saturday the 9th of January, 2016. Jesse lived life to the fullest in Fort Collins, Colorado where he was pursuing his Bachelors in Computer Science. Jesse was born on September 17, 1992 in Phoenix, AZ.

Jesse was passionate about life. He truly lived every second like it counted. This was apparent in the way he maintained positivity in most of life's biggest storms. He seldom put away his smile even when he had finals, friends, work, and finances to balance. Jesse loved everyone he met as if they were his closest family—even the most cast-away stranger in the corner of a party. Jesse's dedication was a bit beyond a normal person's. He regularly worked out, dieted, studied late, worked early, and broke the rules—even to the point where some might call it strange.

Jesse is survived by his father, Luis Ortega; grandmother, Elizabeth Boettcher and brother, Ramon Ortega.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Anne (Boettcher) Ortega; grandmother, Celeste Ortega and grandfather, Terry Boettcher.

Whether you can attend or not, please join us in celebrating Jesse's life on Wednesday, January 13th, 2016. If attending, Jesse would love a sunflower from you if feel inclined to bring one.

“ When the enemy, death strikes, your grief can be great. My heart goes out to the families at this time and in the days ahead. One day we will see when, "He [God] will actually swallow up death forever, ...[And] He will certainly wipe the tears from all faces".... Isaiah 25:8.

“ So very sorry to hear of your beloved Jesse's passing... I trained him at Waste Management, to work in the scale house on Saturdays. He was a delightful young man, to say the least. He called me Aunt Debbie. Sometimes I would leave him food that I hadn't eaten, or bring him goodies from home, as I knew he was a "starving" college student and he loved eating, whatever it was! He certainly radiated joy and happiness, I will miss him greatly! Peace, and comfort to your family. Debbie Divine

“ I had a class with Jesse at CSU and gave him rides home often. We didn't know each other super well, but from the conversations we had and from his attitude about life, I can truly say he was one of the nicest people I've met in life. I'll always remember seeing him flying around on his longboard through campus as well as his genuine kindness and care for everyone. I'm going to light a candle in the church by me in his honor. Rest in peace Jesse

“ Jesse

I remember the day you where born. It's seems like it was just yesterday. You where always a happy little boy with a smile on your face that lite up the room. You grew up to be an amazing young man. I wish we could've had more time with you but the Lord wanted it this way. You're now with the Lord, Mom, Sister and Grandpa in Heaven, what a great place to be. I will miss you so much. I love you with all of my heart. I'm so proud to be your Tia.

“ I am Sister Mary, his great Aunt, handling tragedies and remaining strong through it all is what summarizes the life of Jesse. That is what i have observed from Jesse and you, his brother, Ramon. Jesse lived simply, was a responsible grand child to his grandmother, a delightful cousin and determined body builder.. He loved his grandmother for her life-giving and spirit filled love of the Lord. Through our prayers and Jesus's gift of redemption may Jesse now be enjoying the tender embrace of the God who said at his Baptism, Jesse, you are my beloved Son, my favor rests on you.
