“ I remember Mr and Mrs Saffer coming to AZ to take care of their grown granddaughter Kerri when he came down with the chickenpox. It was obvious how much they adored her and that they would do anything for anyone in their family. Also remember his painting Sheridan's bedroom. How wonderful to have had the opportunity to meet a very kind, gentle, loving grandpa.

“ Aunt Sylvia, Merri, Sherri & girls, I always enjoyed Uncle Jim's optimism and teasing jokes whether they were at Grandma's house or thru e:mails. He was an inspiration to us all to always look on the bright side of life. I expect there is a good deal of laughter going on in heaven at this moment. I always admired how you all did/do everything together as one big family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Jim is one of the special people that you meet only once in your life. He was a loving husband, father, gentleman and most of all my friend. I knew Jim for 43 years, we shared our love of the outdoors together. From hunting to fishing we did it all and loved it. Jim taught me many things about the outdoors and life in general. He could see the beauty in things that most people would never see, and I was fortunate to be able to share some of them with him. We shared the same birthday and my oldest son is named after him. Jim was special to me and I will truly miss him.

“ I remember going fishing with Uncle Jim once on Uncle Lawrence's little pond. I think I was in grade school...we were fishing and he kept catching fish on a spinner. Then he gave me that spinner to keep. I started fishing with it and catching fish like crazy. We pulled in over 100 bass that day! I've loved fishing ever since. Thanks Uncle Jim, you were a happy man that I respected.
Cliff.
Our thoughts and prayers to your whole family.

I am thankful Sherri came into our lives, my Dad has been very happy, fianlly, for many years because of the person Jim and Sylvia raised and the fantastic person Sherri is.
